Welcome to St. Francis of Assisi!

We extend a special welcome to all our visitors and new parishioners who have come to celebrate Mass with us today! If you are new to our community, please introduce yourself to our clergy. If you live in this area and attend regularly, we invite you to join our parish of St. Francis of Assisi. Registration is necessary for better care of souls, more effective administration of sick calls, and matters pertaining to baptism, education, marriage and burial.

Registration is very easy, and the green "Parish Registration" cards can be found in the pamphlet holder above the table in the lobby. After completing, please place in the Parish Drop Box, located in the door by the water fountain in the lobby.

Today's Readings

First Reading—All who believed were devoted to the teachings of the apostles, the communal life, the breaking of the bread, and prayer (Acts 2:42-47).

Psalm—Give thanks to the Lord for He is good, His love is everlasting (Psalm 118).

Second Reading—God has given us an undiminished inheritance, safeguarded for us in heaven (1 Peter 1:3-9).

Gospel—The risen Christ comes to His disciples with peace and the Spirit. The absent Thomas doubts (John 20:19-31).

Blessed are those who have not seen
and have believed.
~ John 20:29b

A Season of Joy

"They devoted themselves to the teaching of the apostles and to the communal life, to the breaking of bread and to the prayers" (Acts 2:42). This first line of today's first reading sets the tone as this fifty-day celebration of Easter opens before us. Today we listen to the teachings of three apostles—Luke, Peter, and John—who remind us that even though we have not seen Christ, we nonetheless are filled with joy as we place our belief in His saving death and resurrection. Each week during the Easter season we will gather as a community of faith to find strength and support from our God and from one another. Each week we will gather to break bread and offer the great prayer of thanksgiving, actions that will manifest the very presence of the risen Christ in our midst. Let us be open to the wonders of this season of joy.

X-treme Christians

You may notice that Acts of the Apostles is the source of the first reading during the Easter season. This book describes how Christianity grew from a handful of disciples to a major religion. Today's reading about an ideal Christian community is meant to show ordinary believers how to be extraordinary, using three examples I call power, property, and prayer.

Power means the "signs and wonders" (Acts 2:43) performed by the disciples through the power of the Holy Spirit. This should be named last, because it takes a lot of faith to heal the sick. "Of course, we can visit the sick and comfort the dying. Just leave it up to God to cure anyone," you might say. If you had the same faith as the apostles, you just might be able to cure the sick. Or you might study to become a doctor and cure them with medical skills. As long as you acknowledge that God gave you the brains and the talent to become a doctor, you are doing God's work.

By property, I mean sharing what you have with those in need. Many disciples were moved to sell their goods and share them with the poor, and word of that must have spread. If you are not called to sell all your goods and become a monk or a nun, you can still tithe to your church or the poor. You can donate time as well, perhaps tutoring disadvantaged kids, helping build or repair houses in poor areas, or bringing meals to shut-ins. The point is that followers of Christ are not just individual do-gooders. They are a community of believers who care about each other and also care about the non-believers who need help of any kind.

So where did these first disciples get the faith to cure the sick and the love to help the needy? The answer is the third example—prayer. Twice in the first reading we hear how "they devoted themselves . . . to the breaking of the bread" (Acts 2:42, 46). Breaking bread was their name for the Eucharist. They also went to the temple to pray, because at that time most disciples were Jewish Christians. As they heard the Hebrew scriptures, they saw how God's promises were fulfilled in Christ. Later, they added reading from the letters of Paul and preaching about Jesus' works and teachings. All of these practices helped unite them to Christ and to each other.

Help Needed!!

Our Helping Hands Ministry is in need of volunteers! The ministry involves helping those parishioners who need assistance in going to doctor's visits, grocery store or to church. If you have a small amount of free time and would like to help in this invaluable ministry, please call Dottie Mabe at 813-681-2421. Please leave a message if she is unable to take your call.

Italy Pilgrimage

Greetings! How would you like to go on a pilgrimage with other Catholics that you know, and experience the history and grandeur of Rome, including walking under Saint Peter's Basilica, to view St. Peter's tomb? How about strolling along the streets of Assisi, or celebrating Mass in Padre Pio's church in San Giovanni Rotundo? We will be on Pilgrimage from September 13-23, 2017, in the fall of Italy. If you are interested, please attend an informational meeting on Sunday, April 30, at 9:30 a.m., in Rooms 2 & 3 at Saint Francis of Assisi. We would love to have you with us. If you have questions, you can contact Deacon Mark at 813-220-5759 (call or text) or email Deacon Mark at DcnDrMT@gmail.com. We hope to see you there!

Faith Formation Families of the Month!

October: The Moylan Family. Their family attends Mass and prays together as a family. Sharon also taught Vacation Bible School this past summer.

January: The Perez family. Their family attends Mass and prays together as a family. Michael and Issac are Altar Servers.

February: The Brown Family. All five children contribute time to our church as Altar Servers and Cross Bearer.

March: The Agostini Family. Kamila and Ariana both give their time as Altar Servers.

Congratulations and God bless you for your time & talent!

St. Francis Chronicle

Blue Jay: Dear Francis, I must admit that I don't completely understand what 'papal infallibility' means, please explain.

Francis: Well, my friend, let me first explain to you what it does not mean....it does not mean that everything the Pope says is infallible...

Blue Jay: Now that I can understand, in other words the Pope, like the rest of us, can make mistakes when talking politics, or football, right?

Francis: Right.....but when, after due consideration, prayer, and discussion, he declares solemnly on matters of faith or morals, then he is said to speak 'infallibly'.

Blue Jay: On matters of faith or morals? That means on what to believe, or what is right or wrong?

Francis: Correct, my feathered friend.

Blue Jay: So, dear saint, when was the last time the Pope spoke infallibly?

Francis: It's a while ago, Bluey, 1950 to be exact, when he declared that the Virgin Mary did not suffer death, because she was sin-less, but was assumed body and soul into heaven.

Blue Jay: And he just didn't wake up one morning and decide to make this proclamation....

Francis: No, my friend, in fact the assumption of Mary into heaven was an ancient belief called 'Dormitio Mariae', the falling asleep of Mary...

Blue Jay: How wonderful, dear Francis,, Mary was sinless, 'full of grace', as the angel said, and so did not have to suffer death which is the result of Original Sin...

Francis: As I said many times before, Bluey, you do not have a bird-brain, you are a real theologian!

Stewardship of Time & Talent Salute

In gratitude of God's gifts of time and talent to our parish, we wish to acknowledge and salute, John Wasyluk, Eucharistic Minister of Holy Communion to the Homebound. Thank you, John!!

Stewardship Reflection

"Jesus came and stood among them and said to them, 'Peace be with you.'" ~ John 20:19

Are you good at making people feel welcome? When you meet someone new, a new neighbor, a new work colleague, a new parishioner, do you make them feel at home? Many of us can probably do a much better job at this. When we make people feel welcome, we make them feel like they are included instead of being excluded. A simple "hello" and a smile goes a long way.

The Feast of Divine Mercy

Sunday, April 23, 2017

Come, Hear & Celebrate with Us
at St. Francis of Assisi Catholic Church

2:00 p.m.

Sacrament of Reconciliation

2:30 p.m.

Rosary

3:00 p.m.

Chaplet of Divine Mercy with Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament and Veneration of The Divine Mercy Image

3:30 p.m.

Brief Discussion of the Message of Divine Mercy

On February 22, 1931, a young Polish nun, Sr. Faustina Kowalski, saw a vision of Jesus with rays of mercy streaming from the area of His Heart. He told her to have an image painted to represent this vision and to sign it, “Jesus, I Trust in You!”

Calling her the Apostle and Secretary of His mercy, He ordered her to begin writing a diary so others would learn to trust in Him. In a series of revelations, He taught her that His mercy is unlimited and available even to the greatest sinners and He revealed special ways for people to respond to His mercy.

The Feast of Divine Mercy — Jesus requested that the Sunday following Easter be officially established as the Feast of Divine Mercy and He told Faustina, “On that day the very depths of My tender mercy are open to those souls who approach the fount of My Mercy.”

The Image of Divine Mercy — Jesus said, “By means of this image, I shall be granting many graces to souls, so let every soul have access to it. I promise that the soul that will venerate this image shall not perish..because even the strongest faith is of no avail without works.”

The Divine Mercy Chaplet — Our Lord taught Sr. Faustina a special prayer for mercy: “Encourage souls to say the Chaplet....whoever will recite it will receive great mercy...At the hour of their death, I defend as My own glory every soul that will say this chaplet, or when others say it for a dying person, the indulgence is the same.”

The Hour of Great Mercy — Our Lord asked for special prayer at the hour that recalls His death “At three o’clock, implore My mercy, especially for sinners: and; if only for a brief moment, immerse yourself in My Passion.....In this hour I will refuse nothing to the soul that makes a request of Me in Virtue of My Passion.
