Rest In Peace

From the Pastor...

My Dear People in Christ,

An unknown author noted that: Woman was not taken from the feet of man -- that she might be trampled by him. She was not taken from the head of man that he might be superior to her. She was taken from the side of man that she might walk beside him. She was taken from under the arm of man that she may be protected by him. She was taken from near the heart of man that he may love her.

Man and woman complement each other relationally, emotionally, spiritually, and physically. From the moment of creation, woman is seen as a suitable partner for man. Woman is intended to be the one in whom man finds support and strength. This does not mean subservience in any way, for she is a "partner." It does speak to marriage relationships. As the first reading goes, the two become one, and the relationship is one of intimacy and unity rooting itself in love. The two become one in mind, heart, and body.

This relationship is one characterized by the relationship of Christ to his people, the Church. This is why at the end of the wedding Mass, the priest admonishes the groom: "Love your wife as Christ loves His Church." How does Christ love His Church? He loves His Church unto the cross. He was willing to be crucified for love of the Church, His people. Because of the intensity and sacredness of this union, it is not difficult for us to understand the teaching of Jesus about divorce.

With this understanding we see why it is that Jesus speaks against divorce and adultery in the Gospel reading this weekend. He will not be set up or trapped by the Pharisees' question about divorce and the law. What God has joined together, man must not divide.

Jesus, in taking the defense of fidelity in marriage, is only giving us a means towards greater happiness. Jesus offers a very different picture of love, which lies not in feelings but in commitment – one that entails a separation from one's family and a lifelong companionship through joy and sorrow, "for better or for worse." Only such a commitment, maintained despite the highs and lows of feelings, can enable two persons to grow toward real maturity.

Where would humanity be today if Jesus had said that the cross was too heavy or the crucifixion was too painful, too much? Is there not something we can learn from Jesus? Are we no longer willing to suffer? Suffering can soften us; it makes us better persons. It makes us like the children Jesus talks about in the second reading – to give and not to count the cost; to have the freedom of the birds of the air; to respond spontaneously to the love and embrace around us. Are we afraid to suffer because of what suffering will do to us? What God has joined, let no one separate.

I wish you all a blessed week ahead.

Yours in Christ,
Fr. Edison Bernavas I.C.

Welcome to St. Francis of Assisi!

We extend a special welcome to all our visitors and new parishioners who have come to celebrate Mass with us today! If you are new to our community, please introduce yourself to our clergy. If you live in this area and attend regularly, we invite you to join our parish of St. Francis of Assisi. Registration is necessary for better care of souls, more effective administration of sick calls, and matters pertaining to baptism, education, marriage and burial. Registration is very easy, and the cream "Parish Registration" cards can be found in the pamphlet holder above the table in the lobby. After completing, please place in the Parish Drop Box, located in the door by the water fountain in the lobby.

Welcome!!

We would like to welcome a new addition to our St. Francis of Assisi Family, Joanna Kauer. Joanna joins our family as the new Youth Ministry Coordinator. Please make her feel welcome and don't hesitate to contact her with any Youth Ministry questions. She can be reached via phone and email at (813) 731-7693 or stfrancisyouthministry445@gmail.com.

He Embraced Them and Blessed Them

Today Jesus stresses how children embody the reign of God. They are trusting and loving and have hearts that are open to love. They are joyful when they are made aware of God's love for them, and are eager to return that love. This is the model Jesus holds out to us if we want to welcome the reign of God. We need to have open, loving hearts. We must drop our defenses, however we came by them, and welcome Christ's love for us with joy. This is impossible for us on our own. Only the grace of God will enable us to do this, but that grace is freely and generously given. We have only to accept it.

Desde el Escritorio del Párroco

Queridos hermanos en Cristo,

Un autor desconocido notó que: La mujer no fue sacada de los pies del hombre, porque ella podría ser pisoteada por él. Ella no fue sacada de la cabeza del hombre que él podría ser superior a ella. Ella fue tomada de la costilla del hombre para que ella pudiera caminar junto a él. Ella fue tomada bajo el brazo del hombre para que ella fuera protegida por él. Ella fue tomada cerca del corazón del hombre para que ella la amara.

El hombre y la mujer se complementan entre sí, emocional, espiritual y físicamente. Desde el momento de la creación, la mujer es vista como una compañera adecuada para el hombre. La mujer está destinada a ser aquella en quien el hombre encuentre apoyo y fortaleza. Esto no significa que ella es la sirvienta de ninguna manera, ya que ella es una "compañera". Habla de las relaciones matrimoniales. Como dice la primera lectura, los dos se vuelven uno, y la relación es de intimidad y unidad enraizándose en el amor. Los dos se vuelven uno en mente, corazón y cuerpo.

Esta relación se caracteriza por la relación de Cristo con su pueblo, la Iglesia. Es por eso que al final de la Misa nupcial, el sacerdote amonesta al novio: "Ama a tu esposa como Cristo ama a su Iglesia". ¿Y Cómo ama Cristo a su Iglesia? Él ama a su iglesia hasta la cruz. Estaba dispuesto a ser crucificado por amor a la Iglesia, a su pueblo. Debido a la intensidad y lo sagrado de esta unión, no es difícil para nosotros entender la enseñanza de Jesús sobre el divorcio.

Con este entendimiento, vemos por qué Jesús habla en contra del divorcio y el adulterio en la lectura del Evangelio de este fin de semana. Él no es atrapado por la pregunta de los fariseos sobre el divorcio y la ley. Lo que Dios ha unido, el hombre no debe separarlo.

Jesús, al tomar la defensa de la fidelidad en el matrimonio, solo nos está dando un medio para una mayor felicidad. Jesús ofrece una imagen muy diferente del amor, que no radica en los sentimientos sino en el compromiso: uno que implica una separación de la familia y una compañía de por vida a través de la alegría y la tristeza, "para bien o para mal". Solo ese compromiso, mantenido a pesar de los altibajos de los sentimientos, puede permitir que dos personas crezcan hacia la madurez real.

Les deseo a todos una bendecida semana.

P. Edison Bernavas I.C.

Bienvenidos a San Francisco de Asís!

Damos una especial bienvenida a todos los visitantes y nuevos feligreses que han venido hoy a celebrar la Misa con nosotros. Si usted es nuevo en nuestra comunidad, por favor preséntese a nuestro clero. Si vive en esta área y participa de la Misa regularmente, le invitamos a unirse a nuestra parroquia. Registrarse es importante para asuntos de bautizo, primera comunión, confirmación, unción de los enfermos y funerales.

La inscripción es muy fácil. Los formularios se encuentran a la entrada de la parroquia. Son unas tarjetas de color crema con el título, 'Registro Parroquial'. Después de completarla, colóquela en el buzón ubicado en la puerta al lado de la fuente de agua en el vestíbulo.

Los Abrazó y Los Bendijo

Hoy Jesús recalca que el Reino de Dios pertenece a los que son como los niños. Son confiados, tiernos y tienen el corazón abierto al amor. Se alegran cuando se dan cuenta del amor que Dios siente por ellos y están más que dispuestos a retribuir ese amor. Este es el modelo que Jesús nos presenta si queremos recibir el Reino de Dios. Debemos abrir el corazón y amar. Debemos bajar la guardia, sin importar por qué la hayamos montado, y recibir con alegría el amor que Cristo siente por nosotros. Es imposible que hagamos esto sin ayuda. Sólo la gracia de Dios nos permitirá hacerlo y esa gracia se nos concede generosamente y sin condiciones. Lo único que debemos hacer es aceptarla.
