From the Pastor...

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Each Sunday in the Creed, we profess, "He ascended into heaven." Christ's Ascension, His return to His Father with His "Mission Accomplished," was a culmination of God's Divine Plan for Christ. Jesus' Ascension was the grand finale of all His salvific words and works, done for us. It was a culmination, but not the conclusion.

The Feast of the Ascension celebrates a specific aspect of the Resurrection, namely Jesus' Exaltation and the Heavenly Reign of Christ. The Lord "seated at God's right hand," means that He is in charge. He alone is in control of the continuing plan of salvation through the Spirit, unrestricted by time, space or culture.

So what does the Ascension mean for us today? If we are to be like Christ, it means that we must touch each other's lives by being present to others, speaking words that nurture their growth, doing things that build up the life of the church, even by silence, and by accepting our own departure from this earth and preparing others for our own good-byes.

We often have this kind of experience, simply in less dramatic ways. Parents, as an example, experience this, often excruciatingly, when a child grows up, and goes away to start life on his or her own.

In all the accounts of the Ascension, Jesus commissions the apostles to carry on His work, and by extension, He commissions the Church, that is, He commissions us. If we look at the texts from today's gospel and the first reading from the Acts of the Apostles, we can read two different commissions and one promise that we, as Church, have received from Jesus at the Ascension:

- ◆ We are to evangelize.

This means that we are to preach the Gospel, not just by what we say but also by who we are and what we do.

- ◆ We are to heal.

It is not just the body that Jesus asks us to heal. He also commands us to pay attention to the rational and emotional processes that are constitutive elements of the human person.

- ◆ We are to receive the Holy Spirit.

Jesus has not left us orphans, but He has promised to be with us in His Spirit, Who will empower us to be witnesses for Jesus.

I wish you and your loved ones a happy and blessed week ahead.

Fr. Edison Bernavas I.C.

Desde el Escritorio del Párroco

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo:

Cada domingo en el Credo, profesamos: “Él ascendió al cielo”. La ascensión de Cristo, su regreso a su padre con su “misión cumplida”, fue la culminación del Plan divino de Dios para Cristo. La ascensión de Jesús fue el gran final de todas sus palabras y obras salvíficas, hechas para nosotros. Fue una culminación, pero No es la conclusión.

La Fiesta de la Ascensión celebra un aspecto específico de la Resurrección, a saber, la Exaltación de Jesús y el Reino Celestial de Cristo. El Señor “sentado a la diestra de Dios”, significa que Él está a cargo. Solo él tiene el control del plan continuo de salvación a través del Espíritu, sin restricciones de tiempo, espacio o cultura.

Entonces, ¿qué significa para nosotros la Ascensión hoy? Si vamos a ser como Cristo, significa que debemos tocar las vidas de los demás al estar presentes a los demás, hablar con palabras que nutren su crecimiento, hacer cosas que construyen la vida de la iglesia, incluso mediante el silencio, y aceptando la nuestra. Partir de esta tierra y preparar a otros para nuestra propia despedida.

A menudo tenemos este tipo de experiencia, simplemente de maneras menos dramáticas. Los padres, como ejemplo, experimentan esto, a menudo insoportable, cuando un hijo crece y se va para comenzar la vida por su cuenta.

En todos los relatos de la Ascensión, Jesús comisiona a los apóstoles para que realicen su obra, y por extensión, comisiona a la Iglesia, es decir, nos comisiona a nosotros. Si miramos los textos del evangelio de hoy y la primera lectura de los Hechos de los Apóstoles, podemos leer dos comisiones diferentes y una promesa que nosotros, como Iglesia, hemos recibido de Jesús en la Ascensión:

- Debemos evangelizar.

Esto significa que debemos predicar el Evangelio, no solo por lo que decimos, sino también por quiénes somos y lo que hacemos.

- Debemos sanar.

No es solo el cuerpo lo que Jesús nos pide que sanemos. También nos ordena que prestemos atención a los procesos racionales y emocionales que son elementos constitutivos de la persona humana.

- Debemos recibir el Espíritu Santo.

Jesús no nos ha dejado huérfanos, pero nos ha prometido estar con nosotros en su Espíritu, que nos capacitará para ser testigos de Jesús.

Le deseo a usted y a sus seres queridos una feliz y bendita semana.

P. Edison Bernavas I.C.
