From the Pastor...

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

V. P. Menon was a significant political figure in India during its struggle for independence from Britain, after World War II. Menon had a splendid reputation for personal charity. His daughter explained the background of this trait after he died. When Menon arrived in Delhi to seek a job in government, all his possessions, including his money and I.D., were stolen at the railroad station. He would have to return home on foot, defeated. In desperation he turned to an elderly Sikh, explained his troubles, and asked for a temporary loan of fifteen rupees to tide him over until he could get a job. The Sikh gave him the money. When Menon asked for his address so that he could repay the man, the Sikh said that Menon owed the debt not to him but to any stranger who came to him in need, as long as he lived. The help came from a stranger and was to be repaid to a stranger. Menon never forgot that debt. His daughter said that the day before Menon died, a beggar came to the family home in Bangalore asking for help to buy new sandals, for his feet were covered with sores. Menon asked his daughter to take fifteen rupees out of his wallet to give to the man. It was Menon's last conscious act. Menon ministered to strangers because a stranger had ministered to him. [Robert A. Fulgham, All I Really Need to Know I Learned in Kindergarten (New York: Villard Books, 1988).]

In today's gospel, a Scribe asked Jesus a very basic religious question: "What should I do to inherit eternal life?" In answer, Jesus directed the Scribe's attention to the Sacred Scriptures. The scriptural answer is, "love God and express it by loving your neighbor." However, to the scribe, the word "neighbor" meant another Scribe or Pharisee – never a Samaritan or a Gentile. Hence, the Scribe insisted on a clarification of the word "neighbor." So Jesus told him the parable of the Good Samaritan. The parable clearly indicates that a "neighbor" is anyone who needs help. Thus, the correct approach is not to ask the question "Who is my neighbor?" but rather to ask, "Am I a good neighbor to others?"

We need to remember that the road from Jerusalem to Jericho passes right through our home, parish, school and work place. The Jericho Road is any place where people are being robbed of their dignity, their material goods or their value as human beings. It is any place where there is suffering and oppression. As a matter of fact, the Jericho Road may be our own home, the place where we are taking care of a mother or father, husband or wife, or even our own children. We may find our spouse, children or parents lying "wounded" by bitter words, scathing criticism or other, more blatant forms of verbal, emotional or physical abuse. Hence, Jesus invites us to have hearts of love. What God wants more than anything is for us to show our love to others, in our own home and school, in the work place, and in the neighborhood, as the Good Samaritan did. Jesus is inviting us to have hearts of mercy for those who are being hurt or mistreated on any of the "Jericho Roads" of life.

I wish you all a wonderful and blessed week ahead.

~Fr. Edison Bernavas I.C.

Offertory Envelopes

Why is it so important to use my offertory envelopes? The regular use of envelopes will assist us when the time comes for sacramental preparation, such as couples wishing to be married, parents wishing to have a child baptized, sponsor certificates for sacraments, and special permission letters for baptisms and marriages. Also, contribution statements for monetary donations can only be issued to those parishioners that use envelopes. Please use your envelope — EMPTY or NOT — whenever you attend Mass. Place them in the offertory collection so that your attendance may be recorded. Did you know that only approximately 35% of registered parishioners use their envelopes each week? Don't forget to use your envelope to make sure that you are counted!! Not sure if you are registered...please call the office.

We are Courageously Living the Gospel through the Annual Pastoral Appeal!

Our parish is filled with caring, generous people who understand and embrace the Annual Pastoral Appeal and the good that it brings to our parish and to our diocese. Thank you to all who have given a sacrificial gift to this year's APA. Your generosity to APA supports the mission of Jesus Christ, allowing us to bring God's love and mercy past our parish boundaries. If you have not yet made a gift, it's never too late. BE COURAGEOUS, let faith be your guide, hope be your inspiration, and love inspire your action. Every gift of every size spreads the loving message of Jesus Christ. BE COURAGEOUS!

Prayer for Protection During Hurricane Season

O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed Your order and returned to its former quietude.

You are still the Master of land and sea. We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control: the Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land, and spread chaos and disaster.

During this hurricane season we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with passing of time.

O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son on our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem, where a stormless eternity awaits us. Amen.

Stewardship Reflections

"Jesus said to him, 'Go and do likewise.'" LUKE 10:37

This was Jesus' command at the end of the Good Samaritan story. Did you know that the Samaritans and Jews despised each other. The moral of the story is to love our neighbor. That means loving someone you may not know or someone that looks different than you or someone that you don't like. All without expecting anything in return.

Desde el Escritorio del Párroco

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo!

V. P. Menon fue una importante figura política en la India durante su lucha por la independencia de Gran Bretaña, después de la Segunda Guerra Mundial. Menon tenía una espléndida reputación de caridad personal. Su hija explicó el trasfondo de este rasgo después de su muerte. Cuando Menon llegó a Delhi para buscar un empleo en el gobierno, todas sus posesiones, incluyendo su dinero y su identificación, fueron robadas en la estación del ferrocarril. Tendría que volver a casa a pie, derrotado. Desesperado, se dirigió a un anciano sij, le explicó sus problemas y le pidió un préstamo temporal de quince rupias para ayudarlo a conseguir un empleo. El sikh le dio el dinero. Cuando Menon le pidió su dirección para que pudiera pagarle al hombre, el Sikh dijo que Menon no le debía nada, sino que le devia a cualquier extraño que lo necesitara, mientras viviera. La ayuda vino de un extraño y debía ser devuelta a un extraño. Menon nunca olvidó esa deuda. Su hija dijo que el día anterior a la muerte de Menon, un mendigo fue a la casa de la familia en Bangalore pidiendo ayuda para comprar sandalias nuevas, ya que sus pies estaban cubiertos de llagas. Menon le pidió a su hija que sacara quince rupias de su billetera para dárselas al hombre. Fue el último acto consciente de Menon. Menon ayudaba a extraños porque un extraño le había ayudado. [Robert A. Fulgham, Todo lo que realmente necesito saber que aprendí en la escuelita (Nueva York: Villard Books, 1988).]

En el evangelio de hoy, un escriba le hizo a Jesús una pregunta religiosa básica: "¿Qué debo hacer para heredar la vida eterna?" En respuesta, Jesús dirigió la atención del escriba a las Sagradas Escrituras. La respuesta bíblica es: "ama a Dios y exprésalo amando a tu prójimo". Sin embargo, para el escriba, la palabra "vecino" significa otro escriba o fariseo, nunca un samaritano o un gentil. Por lo tanto, el escriba insistió en una aclaración de la palabra "vecino". Entonces Jesús le contó la parábola del buen samaritano. La parábola indica claramente que un "vecino" es cualquier persona que necesita ayuda. Por lo tanto, el enfoque correcto no es hacer la pregunta "¿Quién es mi prójimo?", Sino más bien preguntar: "¿Soy un buen vecino de los demás?"

Necesitamos recordar que el camino de Jerusalén a Jericó pasa a través de nuestra casa, parroquia, escuela y lugar de trabajo. El camino de Jericó es cualquier lugar donde a las personas se les roba su dignidad, sus bienes materiales o su valor como seres humanos. Es cualquier lugar donde haya sufrimiento y opresión. De hecho, Jericó puede ser nuestra propia casa, el lugar donde cuidamos a una madre o padre, esposo o esposa, o incluso a nuestros propios hijos. Podemos encontrar a nuestro cónyuge, hijos o padres "heridos" por palabras amargas, críticas mordaces u otras formas más flagrantes de abuso verbal, emocional o físico. Por eso, Jesús nos invita a tener un corazón de amor. Lo que Dios quiere más que nada es que mostremos nuestro amor a los demás, en nuestra propia casa y escuela, en el lugar de trabajo y en el vecindario, como lo hizo el buen samaritano. Jesús nos está invitando a tener corazones de misericordia para aquellos que están siendo lastimados o maltratados en cualquiera de los "Caminos de Jericó" de la vida.

Les deseo a todos una maravillosa y bendecida semana.

~P. Edison Bernavas I.C

Oración para Pedir Protección Durante la Temporada de Huracanes

Oh Dios, Maestro de este mundo pasajero, escucha las voces humildes de tus hijos e hijas.
El mar de Galilea obedeció tu orden y volvió a su antigua quietud.

Todavía eres el Maestro de la tierra y del mar.
Vivimos bajo la sombra de un gran peligro sobre el cual no tenemos control: el golfo, que como enojado e irritado gigante, puede despertar de su aparente letargo, sobrepasar sus límites convencionales, e invadir nuestra tierra, creando caos y desastres.

Durante esta temporada de huracanes nos dirigimos a ti, oh Padre amoroso.

Evítanos revivir las tragedias pasadas cuyos recuerdos están aún tan frescos en nuestra memoria y cuyas heridas parecen rehusarse a sanar con el paso del tiempo.

Oh Virgen, Estrella del Mar, nuestra amada Madre, te pedimos que implores con tu Hijo en nuestro favor, para que se digne librarnos de las calamidades comunes a esta área y nos conceda un verdadero espíritu de gratitud, para poder seguir los pasos de tu divino Hijo y así llegar a la Jerusalén celestial, donde nos espera una eternidad sin tormentas. Amén.
